

Students & Postdocs report

Pierre Chatagnon, interim Students & Postdocs representative

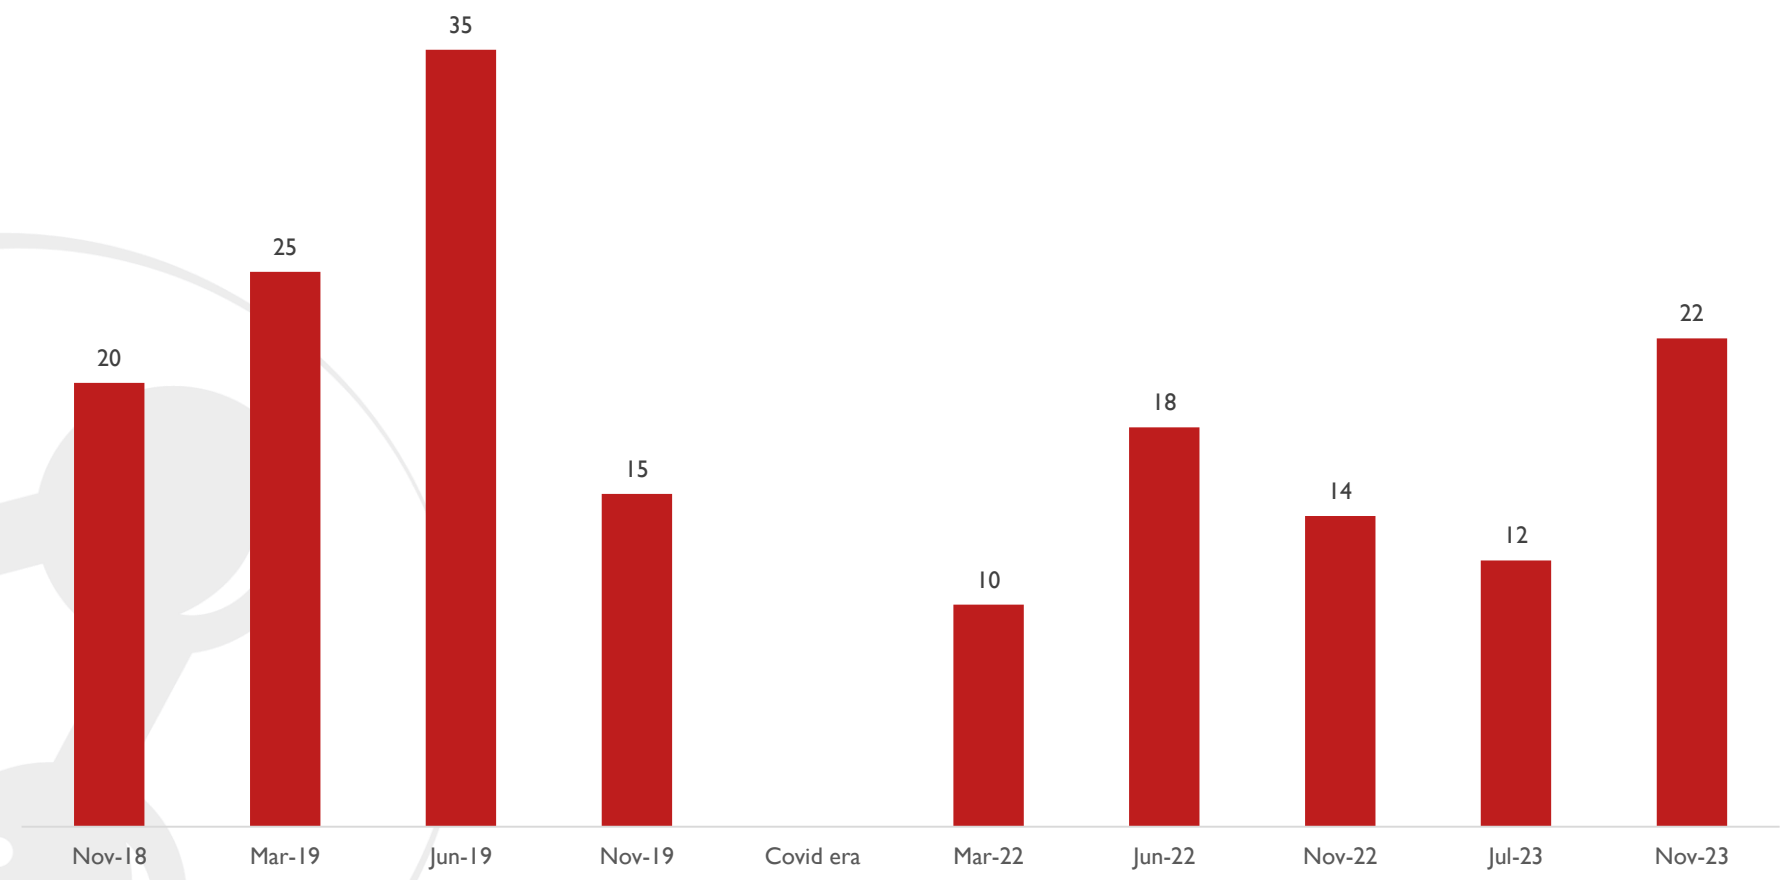

Richard Tyson, elected Students & Postdocs representative

CLAS collaboration meeting – Jefferson Lab

10th of November 2023

Attendance

Students & Postdocs meeting attendance

Students & Postdocs representative election

- Only one candidate after the collaboration-wide email announcing the election: Richard Tyson
- An opportunity was given during the meeting to allow more candidates to declare themselves
- No new candidate
- Richard Tyson is the new Students and Postdocs representative

Discussions

Welcome and “How to” session

- Introductory speech by Will (Thank you for the pizza !)
- Membership rules reminder by Bryan
- List of webpage links to find most of the useful information about the collaboration
- If you are a student or postdoc please remember to sign up to the clas_students_postdocs@jlab.org mailing list

Software office hours feedbacks

- Informal discussion/Q&A session on software, initiated by Taya Chetry and Raffaella De Vita
- Tuesdays, 9:30 am EST, online and F228 onsite
- Very positive feedbacks
- Possibility to vary the time (alternating days for example) to allow more people to connect

Open session

- Vibrant discussions, with some topics reported to CCC
- Some interest to form a committee to help the S&P representative in their mission
 - Send an email or contact directly Richard if you are interested

First CLAS collaboration SLAM competition

Rules

- Presentation limited to 3 minutes max
 - A single slide was allowed and Small objects and props to support the presentation were also allowed.
 - Speakers could talk about any topic of their research, and should make sure it is understandable by non-specialists.
- On Wednesday at 5:30 pm
 - At Tradition Brewery
 - 4 speakers
 - 35 judges in the attendance
 - A great success !

Congratulations to all the contestants and to our winner Sebouh !